

Some exciting news from the ISUSBCYA Jamboree in Indy this past weekend, Aug 16-17, 2014

First, we had 4 Evansville bowlers bowl and place well enough to win a scholarship in the Luise Lesser Memorial Jamboree Tournament:

Dillon Coultas placed 1st in the Scratch Boys Division, winning a $500 scholarship.

Lindsey Borman placed 4th in the 161 Avg & Over Girls Division, winning a $250 scholarship.

Jordan Sisson placed 5th in the 160 Avg & Under Girls Division, winning a $250 scholarship.

Jessica Sisson placed 7th in the 160 Avg & Under Girls Division, winning a $150 scholarship.

Second, we have some local bowlers on the ISUSBCYA board and Youth Leaders board.

Tim Borman was elected as a Zone 6 Director on the adult board. We have 2 zone directors and they are elected on opposite years. Jennifer Sisson is our other zone director and her term will be up for re-election in 2015.

Lindsey Borman was elected President of the ISUSBCYA Youth Leaders Board.

Dillon Coultas was elected Sgt at Arms of the ISUSBCYA Youth Leaders Board.

George Zimmer II was elected as one of two Zone 6 Representatives. The other Zone 6 Representative elected was Chance Stewart-Hayne from Sullivan.

In other youth bowling news, the IYSBT (Indiana Youth Scholarship Bowling Tournament) South, which is a traveling scratch youth tournament was held at Kingpins Bowl in Bedford on Sun, Aug 10. Both of the winners were from Evansville. Will Boston was the boys division winner. Lindsey Borman was the girls division winner. They each won a $150 scholarship. This is Will's 2nd and Lindsey's 3rd IYSBT South win since April 2014.

Also, here is a copy of the IYSBT South schedule so far:

Sept 14, 2014~Eastown Recreation Lanes~Jasper

Oct 12, 2014~Columbus Bowling Center~Columbus

Nov 9, 2014~River City Recreation~Evansville